Numb. 1800

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday February 15. to Monday February 19. 1682.

Naples, January 12.

THE ſixth Inſtant arrived here our new Vice-roy, the Marquiſs de Liche: On Monday next he will make his publick Entry, and take poſſeſſion of the Government, which is as yet in the hands of the Marquiſs de los Velez.

Venice, Feb. 6. This State is going to encreaſe its Forces: and we are told that a League is Negotiating for the preſerving the Peace of Italy. Our Letters from Rome of the 25 paſt inform us, That the Pope had ordered that 200 thouſand Crowns ſhall be forthwith remitted to his Nuncio at Vienna, to be employed in the War againſt the Turks: and that the Pope had written to the Moſt Chriſtian King to exhort him to employ his Arms againſt the Turks, and for that end to accommodate the Differences he has with the Princes his Neighbours.

Vienna, Feb. 4. The 25 paſt the new Treaty of Alliance concluded between the Emperor and the Elector of Bavaria, was Signed by the Imperial Commiſſioners, and by the Vice-Chancellor of Bavaria, and the next day an Expreſs was diſpatched to Municken, to give his Electoral Highneſs an Account of it; By this Treaty the Elector, as we are told, is obliged to furniſh 13000 Men for the Service of the Emperor. Two days ſince arrived here an Expreſs from Turin to call thither the Prince of Savoy, who had taken upon him the Command of a Regiment of Dragoons in the Emperors Service. From Hungary we have Advice, That the States of the Upper-Hungary, purſuant to Count Teckeley's Summons, were aſſembled at Caſchaw, and that Count Teckeley had propoſed to them; Firſt, That they ſhould acknowledge him Duke or Prince of Hungary; Secondly, That they ſhould raiſe the 40000 Crowns that are to be paid yearly to the Turks; Thirdly, That when He takes the Field the Gentry ſhall be obliged to mount on Horſeback, and to follow him. However we have ſtill hopes of Peace.

Vienna, Feb. 7. The Prince of Savoy parted from hence on Monday laſt for Turin. The Expreſs that was ſent to Municken is come back with the Elector of Bavaria's Ratification of the Treaty that was Signed here the 25 of the laſt Month. It is reported, that the following Articles or Conditions are offered by the Grand Signior to the Hungarians.

1. That Count Emericke Teckeley de Retzmarſh, of the Illuſtrious Houſe of Prince Gabriel Bethelem, ſhall be Eſtabliſhed King of Hungary, and that upon his deceaſe the Grand Signior will take the Queen, his Wife, whoſe Father loſt his Life for his Fidelity to the Port, as well her Perſon as her Lands, under his Protection. 2. That the Hungarians, after the death of Count Teckeley and his Children, ſhall be at liberty to chooſe whom they pleaſe to be their King, but ſhall be obliged to give notice of their Election to the Port. 3. That the Honorary Preſent of 40000 Crowns which the Hungarians have promiſed to pay the Grand Signior every year, ſhall not be augmented on any pretence whatſoever. 4. That the Hungarians ſhall be maintained in all their Priviledges, Liberties, Franchiſes, and Immunities. 5. That the Grand Signior will defend them againſt all their Enemies whatever. 6. That he will aſſiſt Count Teckeley to ſubdue all that do oppoſe him in Hungary. 7. That he will not make a Peace with the Germans, but with the incluſion of the Hungarians. 8. That he will put into the hands of the Hungarians all the Places which the Ottoman Forces ſhall take, in the ſame condition they ſhall find them. 9. That he will inviolably maintain, in as much as they concern the Hungarians, the Conditions of Peace made with the Germans at St. Gothard. 10. That the Jeſuits ſhall be baniſhed Hungary, and never again received there, and ſuch Perſons as ſhall endeavour their re-eſtabliſhment ſhall be ſeverely puniſhed. 11. That the Tribute of the Places that have yielded ſhall not be augmented, but what they pay to the Port and to the Hungarians ſhall be continued in the ſame manner it is now. 12. The Hungarian Treaſurers ſhall have free paſſage through the Ottoman Territories. 13. And coming to the Port with the yearly Preſents, or upon any other occaſion, ſhall be Honourably received. 14. The Grand Signior will by his Oath and Imperial Word oblige himſelf, and all the Ottoman Nation, faithfully and punctually to obſerve theſe Articles, unleſs the Hungarians do on their part break them.

Ratisbonne, Feb. 11. The latter end of the laſt week arrived here an Expreſs from Paris, who, we underſtand, brought the Count de Crecy Orders to receive the Propoſals that ſhould be made to him by the Dyet, and to Treat with them thereupon, without any limitation of time: but withal to let them know, that his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty does not now look upon himſelf to be obliged to make good the Conditions he offered by his Ambaſſadors at Francfort, and by his Miniſter here, but that he will take ſuch meaſures, as he ſhall think moſt convenient. In the mean time the Electoral Colledge and that of the Princes cannot agree in the firſt ſteps that are to be made in Treating with the Count de Crecy; and the Emperor continues to preſs them to take immediately in hand the point of the publick ſecurity, that the ſafety of the Empire may in this dangerous conjuncture be provided for; but the Electoral Colledge declare, they think it neceſſary firſt to accommodate matters with France, which being done, they may turn their whole care and application to eſtabliſh the moſt effectual means for their common defence againſt the Turks.

Cologne, Feb. 19. Things have been of late in great